Foreword by the Asafohene / Asanteman Akwamuhene

It is with a deep sense of duty that I present the fifth annual report of the Akwamu Divisional Council, covering the year 2025. The report continues an unbroken record of accountability to Otumfoɔ, to the Kumasi Traditional Council, and to the communities that look to the Akwamu Division for justice, order, and the custodianship of the land. It sets out the matters we adjudicated, the customs and ceremonies we observed, the institutions and stakeholders with whom we engaged, and the stewardship we exercised over stool lands during the year.

The year under review was demanding and, in equal measure, rewarding. The Council convened twenty-four formal sittings across its two adjudicating forums, the Akwamu Fekuo and the Asafo Fetroɔ, resolving a wide range of disputes touching on chieftaincy and succession, land and boundaries, family and burial rights, and the sanctity of the Great Oath of the Asantehene. Where matters exceeded our jurisdiction, they were referred, in accordance with custom, to Otumfoɔ and the Kumasi Traditional Council. The Awukudae was observed on nine occasions, and the Council presided over enstoolments and other rites that renew the bonds of our tradition.

Beyond the palace, I had the privilege of representing His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II at several events of national significance, and of assuming the chairmanship of the Governing Council of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology. These responsibilities affirm the place of traditional authority as a partner in national development: in education, in environmental stewardship, and in the ordered use of land.

In the stewardship of stool lands, the Council recorded three hundred and ninety-one allocations across twenty-eight communities, administered through a network of thirty-two overseers. The register that accompanies this report reflects a settled commitment to transparency and to orderly land administration, and to placing custom on a footing that our people and our partners can trust.

I am grateful to Nananom of the Akwamu Fekuo and the Asafo Fetroɔ, to the Akyeame, to the Council Secretariat, and to the chiefs, elders, and citizens whose cooperation made the work of the year possible. It is my hope that this report will serve not only as a record of what was done, but as a foundation for the continued advancement of the Akwamu Division.

Akyamfoɔ Asafo Boakye Agyemang-Bonsu

Asafohene / Asanteman Akwamuhene

President, Akwamu Divisional Council

1. About the Akwamu Divisional Council

1.1 Establishment and mandate

The Akwamu Divisional Council is a constituent body of the Kumasi Traditional Council within Asanteman. Established under the authority of the Asanteman Council and operating under the oversight of the Kumasi Traditional Council, it exercises customary jurisdiction over the Akwamu Division and the wider Asafo community. Its mandate spans the religious, cultural, social, economic, and developmental affairs of the Division, and it discharges assignments referred to it by Otumfoɔ, the Ashanti Regional House of Chiefs, and the Kumasi Traditional Council.

1.2 Composition

The Council is composed of two principal bodies. The Akwamu Fekuo comprises the Abrempon of the Division together with the Asafo Fetroɔ, the Adum Fetroɔ, and the Twafoɔ Fetroɔ, and sits principally on matters concerning the Great Oath of the Asantehene and on assignments referred by Otumfoɔ. The Asafo Fetroɔ, sitting with the Asafohene and the Gyaasefoɔ, hears the general run of disputes arising within the Division. The two bodies are supported by the Akyeame, who conduct the proceedings of the courts, and by the Council Secretariat, which maintains the records of the Division.

The offices that constitute the Council and regularly attend its sittings include the following principal stools and portfolios:

CONSTITUENT OFFICE	PRINCIPAL STOOLS AND PORTFOLIOS
President	Asafohene / Asanteman Akwamuhene
Divisional wing (Gyaasefoɔ)	Benkumhene, Twafoɔhene, Adontenhene, Manwerehene, Sanaahene
Household and ritual offices	Akrafohene, Dwatoahene, Ntotoyehene, Sodoohene, Adumhene
Divisional stools (Adikrofoɔ)	Adumasa, Saaman, Setiase, Apampatia, Ayomso, Bebu, Nyinsinaase, Maase, Dumakwae, Akyeremade
Linguists	The Akyeame of the Asafohene and of the constituent stools
Secretariat	Recording and custody of Council proceedings and land records

1.3 Leadership

The Council is led by the Asafohene and Asanteman Akwamuhene, Akyamfoɔ Asafo Boakye Agyemang-Bonsu, occupant of the Awere Adwatia Stool, who presides over its sittings and represents the Division within Asanteman and beyond. During the year under review he also served as Chairman of the Governing Council of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, and represented His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II at several events of national significance, as recorded in Section 5 of this report.

2. The Year at a Glance

The year 2025 was marked by sustained adjudicatory activity, a full calendar of customary observances, an expanding programme of institutional and national engagement, and the orderly administration of stool lands. The Council held twenty-four formal sittings, observed the Awukudae on nine occasions, presided over five enstoolments and installations, and recorded three hundred and ninety-one land allocations across twenty-eight communities. The principal indicators for the year are summarised below.

24 Formal Council sittings	2 Adjudicating forums	19 Great Oath matters (Fekuo)
6 Matters referred to Otumfoɔ	9 Awukudae observances	5 Enstoolments and installations
391 Stool-land allocations	28 Communities served	32 Land overseers engaged
12 National and institutional engagements	8 Bereavements honoured	3 Books launched by the Asafohene

2.1 Highlights of the year

- Adjudication. Twenty-four sittings of the Akwamu Fekuo and the Asafo Fetro disposed of matters ranging from chieftaincy succession and land and boundary disputes to family, custody, and burial questions. Six matters concerning the Great Oath of the Asantehene were referred to Otumfoɔ and the Kumasi Traditional Council for resolution.
- Custom and ceremony. The Awukudae was observed on nine occasions through the year. The Council installed a new Bebu Dikro, an Asafo Tuntuhene, an Atwima Tabere Dikro, a caretaker of the Apeabra shrine at Bebu, and a linguist to the Asafohene.
- Institutional leadership. The Asafohene was appointed Chairman of the Governing Council of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, and presided over the University's 58th Special Congregation, at which an honorary Doctor of Science was conferred on Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II.
- National representation. On behalf of His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II, the Asafohene attended the launch of the national Tree for Life reforestation initiative and the Presidential Thank-You Tour, among other engagements.
- Stool-land administration. Three hundred and ninety-one parcels were allocated across twenty-eight communities, overwhelmingly for residential use, and are documented in the register at Annex A.

3. Adjudication and Dispute Resolution

3.1 The adjudicating function

Dispute resolution is the principal ongoing work of the Council. Two forums sit for this purpose. The Akwamu Fekuo hears matters concerning the Great Oath of the Asantehene (Otumfoɔ Ntamkeseɛ) and matters assigned to it by Otumfoɔ, and where a matter falls to be resolved by the Kumasi Traditional Council it is forwarded accordingly. The Asafo Fetrɔ, sitting with the Asafohene and the Gyaasefoɔ, hears the general run of disputes arising within the Division. Both forums sit at the Asafo Palace, ordinarily on a Tuesday, under the presidency of the Asafohene, with the proceedings conducted through the Akyeame. Sittings are opened formally by a linguist and are minuted by the Secretariat.

3.2 Caseload and dispositions

The Council held twenty-four formal sittings during the year, ten of the Akwamu Fekuo and fourteen of the Asafo Fetrɔ. Across those sittings more than one hundred matters were listed for hearing. Because contested matters were carried forward from one sitting to the next until they were concluded, and because several were referred to committees of enquiry that reported back in later sittings, the number of distinct disputes was considerably smaller, in the order of forty. This practice of carrying matters forward, rather than disposing of them summarily, allowed evidence to be gathered, surveyors and committees to report, and reconciliation to be attempted before a ruling was made.

Of the matters that came before the Akwamu Fekuo, nineteen concerned the Great Oath of the Asantehene. Six of these were referred to Otumfoɔ and the Kumasi Traditional Council for resolution, as set out in section 3.4. The remaining matters were resolved within the Division, whether by ruling, by the acceptance of contempt and the tendering of an apology, or by reconciliation between the parties.

3.3 Profile of matters heard

The disputes heard during the year fell into five broad categories. Representative matters are noted for each, using the descriptions recorded by the Council.

THE GREAT OATH OF THE ASANTEHENE

Invocations of the Great Oath, and charges of contempt arising from its misuse, formed the largest single category before the Akwamu Fekuo. Matters in this class included the dispute between the Ampabame No.2 Obaapanin and the Mamensenhemaa and Mamensen Abusuapanin, the matter of the Nyinsinaase Abusuapanin, the matter of Opanin Akwasi Antwi of Ahodwo and the Baffour Adumhene, and the Dedesua matter concerning Opanin Kwadwo Appau.

CHIEFTAINCY AND STOOL SUCCESSION

Several matters concerned the right to occupy or to install to a stool. These included the matter between the Gyekye Abusuapanin and the Yabihene and Dikro over the installation of a caretaker Dikro, the long-running matter between the Setiase Dikro and the Setiase Abusuapanin, and questions arising within the Apampatia and Dwatoafoɔ stools.

LAND AND BOUNDARY DISPUTES

Disputes over land, boundaries, and the right to allocate were prominent before the Asafo Fetrɔ. They included the matter of Serwaa Akoto and Kwaku Dua at Ampabame No.2, the matter of Richard Asare Lamptey and Nana Akowuah and others over Bebu land, the matter of Mike Adu Gyamfi and Yaa Dufie over land at Darko Maase, the Afra-Saa matter between Aaron Aboagye and Florence Kwarteng, and the matter of the Akyeamehene Abusuapanin, Opanin Kwaku Agyei, and the Otumfoɔ Nkabomhene, in which a surveyor was directed to report.

FAMILY, CUSTODY, AND BURIAL

The Council heard matters touching on family relations, custody, and the customary right of burial. These included the Chirapatire matter, which concerned the right to bury in the royal cemetery, and the matter of Madam Achiaa and the Tuntu Abusuapanin.

INSTITUTIONAL AND CHURCH-RELATED MATTERS

A small number of matters involved institutions established on stool land. These included the matter of the Bebu Dikro and the Methodist Church, the matter of Adwoa Gyamfuah and the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and the matter arising from development on the Asafo Market following a fire, which the Council took up with the interested parties.

3.4 Matters referred to the Asantehene

In accordance with custom, matters concerning the Great Oath that fell to be resolved by the Kumasi Traditional Council were forwarded to Otumfoɔ. Six such matters were referred during the year:

NO.	MATTER REFERRED	CLASS
1	Nyinsinaase Abusuapanin	Great Oath
2	Opanin Kwadwo Appau and Kyeame Osei Abusuapanin (Dedesua)	Great Oath
3	Dwomo Abusuapanin	Great Oath
4	Manso Fawotirikyɛ	Great Oath
5	Opanin Akwasi Antwi (Ahodwo) v Baffour Adumhene	Great Oath
6	Ampabame No.2 Obaapanin v Mamensen Abusuapanin and Mamensen Ohemaa	Great Oath

3.5 Register of sittings, 2025

The following register records the twenty-four formal sittings held during the year, the forum in each case, and the number of matters listed for hearing. Verbatim proceedings of each sitting, including the record of attendance, the submissions of the parties, and the deliberations of Nananom, are retained in the records of the Council Secretariat.

NO.	DATE	FORUM	MATTERS LISTED
1	14 January	Akwamu Fekuo	2
2	21 January	Asafo Fetɔ	3
3	4 February	Asafo Fetɔ	5
4	18 February	Akwamu Fekuo	8
5	25 February	Asafo Fetɔ	3
6	4 March	Akwamu Fekuo	6
7	11 March	Asafo Fetɔ	6
8	15 March	Akwamu Fekuo	5
9	11 April	Asafo Fetɔ	6
10	15 April	Akwamu Fekuo	3
11	22 April	Asafo Fetɔ	6
12	20 May	Asafo Fetɔ	5
13	1 July	Asafo Fetɔ	5
14	8 July	Akwamu Fekuo	4
15	15 July	Akwamu Fekuo	7
16	22 July	Asafo Fetɔ	3
17	5 August	Akwamu Fekuo	8
18	12 August	Asafo Fetɔ	2
19	14 October	Asafo Fetɔ	8
20	28 October	Asafo Fetɔ	7
21	12 November	Asafo Fetɔ	8
22	18 November	Akwamu Fekuo	7
23	28 November	Akwamu Fekuo	5
24	November (Awukudae sitting)	Asafo Fetɔ	3
	Total	24 sittings	125

Matters listed include fresh complaints, matters carried forward for continued hearing, and committee reports and rulings; several disputes therefore appear across more than one sitting.

4. Custom, Festival and Ceremony

Alongside its adjudicating work, the Council upholds the calendar of customary observance that binds the Division to Asanteman and to the ancestors. The year's principal observances were the Awukudae, the installation of chiefs and officers to vacant stools, and, where custom required, the removal of an officer for misconduct.

4.1 The Awukudae observances

The Awukudae is one of the two observances of the Aday cycle, celebrated every forty days on a Wednesday. It is an ancestral rite performed by the chiefs and elders of the Akan, marked in the stool house by the drumming of the Atumpan and single-air drums, through which protection is sought from the guardian ancestral deities and the people are drawn together under the reign of the King. It is also a season of charity, when the hungry are fed and the sick are remembered.

During 2025 the Awukudae was observed by the Asafohene, together with his council of elders and the general public, at the Asafo Palace on nine occasions: on 1 January, 12 February, 26 March, 7 May, 18 June, 30 July, 10 September, 22 October, and 3 December.

4.2 Enstoolments and installations

The Council presided over a number of installations during the year, renewing the leadership of the Division's stools and offices. The following were installed or selected:

- Nana Agyemang Twumasi Ampofo, enstooled as the Bebu Dikro on 15 July 2025.
- Nana Opoku Mensah, selected as caretaker of the Apea-bra shrine of the Akutuase Abusua of Bebu on 12 August 2025.
- Nana Osei Appiah, enstooled as the Asafo Tuntuhehene on 14 October 2025.
- Nana Kwaku Agyei Tawiah, enstooled as the Atwima Tabere Dikro on 28 October 2025.
- Kyeame Kwame Boakye, selected as a linguist to the Asafohene on 11 April 2025.

4.3 Removal from office

Where the conduct of an officer required it, the Council exercised its customary power of removal. Nana Akowuah Diamono was relieved of his duty as caretaker of the Apea-bra shrine of the Akutuase Abusua of Bebu on 20 May 2025.

5. Institutional Leadership and National Representation

The year saw the Asafohene take on responsibilities that extended the reach of the Division into national institutions and public life. Chief among these was his appointment to lead the Governing Council of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology. He also represented His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II at events of national significance and engaged with industry and with the wider public on questions of development.

5.1 Chairmanship of the KNUST Governing Council

In April 2025 the Asafohene, Akyamfoɔ Asafo Boakye Agyemang-Bonsu, was appointed by the Ministry of Education as Chairman of the Governing Council of the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, the University's highest policy-making body. The Council, comprising fifteen members, was inaugurated by the Minister of Education, Honourable Haruna Iddrisu, who delivered the charge to its members.

Speaking after his appointment, the Chairman set out a vision to position the University as a globally competitive centre of excellence in science, technology, innovation, and leadership. He held that the next phase of the University's growth should rest on academic excellence, strong governance, industry-driven research, and international collaboration, and that its historic legacy provided a foundation on which deliberate reform and strategic investment could build. Among the priorities he identified were the strengthening of research output, the expansion of industry and academia partnerships, the promotion of innovation and entrepreneurship, and the improvement of infrastructure and digital capability, all conducted with accountability, transparency, and inclusiveness. He further stressed the need to align academic programmes with national development priorities in science and technology education, technical skills, and applied research, and pledged to work closely with the Vice-Chancellor, management, staff, students, alumni, and government to that end.

5.2 The 58th Special Congregation of KNUST

As Chairman of the Governing Council, the Asafohene presided over the University's 58th Special Congregation, welcoming the Asantehene and other dignitaries and overseeing proceedings conducted in the University's academic tradition. The Congregation was convened to confer honorary doctorates, its central act being the conferment of a Doctor of Science (honoris causa) on Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II, in recognition of his leadership, his role in resolving the University's earlier impasse, and his contributions to education, tradition, and national development. The Asantehene was joined for the occasion by His Majesty King Mswati III of Eswatini. The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Rita Akosua Dickson, presented the honorary candidates.

5.3 Chancellor's Public Lecture, Kumasi Technical University

The Asafohene represented His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II at the first Chancellor's Public Lecture of Kumasi Technical University and the launch of the University's history book, held at the New Great Hall as part of the University's seventieth anniversary. The Chancellor of the University, Dr Kwame Addo Kufuor, presided and delivered an address at the launch, and Dr Daniel McKorley, Chief Executive of the McDan Group, delivered the keynote on the place of technical and vocational education.

5.4 Representing the Asantehene at national events

TREE FOR LIFE REFORESTATION INITIATIVE

Representing Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II, the Asafohene took part in the launch of the 2025 Tree for Life reforestation initiative of the Government of Ghana and the Forestry Commission in the Ashanti Region. The occasion drew on the moral authority of the Asantehene to present environmental conservation as a shared civic and cultural duty, and to signal the endorsement of the traditional establishment for the campaign. Among the dignitaries present was the Ashanti Regional Minister, Dr Frank Amoakohene.

5.5 Engagement with industry: Asanko Gold Mine

The Asafohene paid a courtesy visit to the Asanko Gold Mine at Manso Abiram. The visit reflected the relationship between traditional authority, community welfare, and large-scale industry, and sought to ensure that the economic benefits of mining are balanced with social responsibility, environmental stewardship, and respect for custom, in the interest of a sustainable and peaceful relationship between the mine and its host communities.

5.6 Public discourse on technology, data, and energy

In his public remarks during the year, the Council Chair urged Ghana to prepare for a future shaped by artificial intelligence, stressing the need for strategic infrastructure, sound local data management, and appropriate governance so that the country and the continent can benefit from emerging technologies. He drew particular attention to the data and energy foundations on which such a future depends.

6. Community, Faith and Stakeholder Engagement

The Division maintained a close and reciprocal relationship with the churches, universities, corporate bodies, and community institutions that share its constituency. The engagements of the year ranged from prayer and outreach to the award of scholarships, the mentoring of youth, and the marking of significant milestones in the life of the Asafohene and of allied stools.

6.1 Church outreach

On 15 July 2025 the Environment and Social Responsibility coordinator and the Ramseyer Presbyterian Church, Adum, Kumasi, called on the Asafohene to pray for him and for the chiefs of the Division.

Figure 11. The Ramseyer Presbyterian Church and the Environment and Social Responsibility coordinator in an outreach visit to the Asafo Palace.

6.2 Scholarship for the Asafo community

A delegation from Christian Service University, Kumasi, led by the Acting Vice-Chancellor, Dr Stephen Banahene, and the University Registrar, Mr Andrews Kingsley Doku, presented a scholarship scheme to the Asafohene for the benefit of the Asafo community.

6.3 Youth, mentorship, and media

The Asafohene was named the Most Distinguished Role Model at the MTN Young Pan-African Youth Congress. The award is the programme's highest individual honour, reserved not for a participant but for an accomplished figure whose life and values are held up as an example for the youth of the continent.

On 28 October 2025 the Asafohene hosted a contestant of the Oyerepa Television programme "Daakye Hema" at the Asafo Palace, together with her management and the production crew, as part of the Division's engagement with young people and the creative media.

6.4 Dedication of the Kra-Kuotri Royal Palace, Nkwanta-Esaase

On 14 November 2025 the Asafohene represented His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II at the dedication of the Kra-Kuotri Royal Palace at Nkwanta-Esaase, accompanied by Nananom of the Akwamu Fekuo and the Asafo Fetro.

6.5 Fifth anniversary and book launch

The year was also marked by a dual celebration of the Asafohene's five years of service to the community and the launch of three books of his authorship: "Poisoned Commonwealth", the "Palace Operations Manual", and "2026: A Year with the King of Kings, a Daily Devotional Guide for Kings and Queens". The occasion joined the customary and the intellectual, and drew a distinguished gathering that included His Royal Majesty Otumfoɔ Osei Tutu II as Guest of Honour, the Vice-Chancellor of KNUST, Professor Rita Akosua Dickson, the Catholic Metropolitan Archbishop of Kumasi, Most Reverend Gabriel Yaw Anokye, the Chairman of the Church of Pentecost, Apostle Eric Kwabena Nyamekye, the Mayor of Kumasi, Mr Richard Ofori Agyemang Boadi, and other leaders of church, state, and industry.

7. Solidarity and Bereavement

As head of the warrior wing and a leading figure of the Division, the Asafohene maintained a presence at the final rites of distinguished members of the community, prominent figures, and allied chiefs. His attendance was a mark of respect and solidarity and a fulfilment of customary obligation. It ordinarily involved leading delegations of Asafo and Akwamu Nananom in full regalia, offering condolences, presenting ceremonial drinks and tribute, and, where appropriate, performing customary rites or offering words of remembrance. In this way the bonds between the Asafo and Akwamu institution, the stool, and the wider community were renewed.

The final rites honoured during the year included the following:

- Daasebre Osei Bonsu, the late Mamponghe. Asante Mampong.
- Nana Konadu Yiadom III, the late Asantehemaa (one-week observance). Manhyia Palace, Kumasi.
- Nana Konadu Yiadom III, the late Asantehemaa (final funeral rites). Manhyia Palace, Kumasi.
- Nana Boakye-Ansah Debrah. Asokore Mampong, Kumasi.
- Madam Georgina Opoku. Ampabame No.2.
- Obaapanin Ama Nyarko (final funeral rites). Jarchie Pramso.
- Obaapanin Afia Frimpomaa (final funeral rites). Anomangye, Kumasi.
- Mrs Elizabeth Agyeman (final funeral rites). Kumasi.

8. Stool Lands Administration

8.1 Overview

The Division administers the stool lands within its jurisdiction through a network of overseers accountable to the Council. Allocations are recorded in a land information register maintained by the Secretariat, which assigns each parcel a unique identifier and records the allottee, the community and district, the plot and street, the intended use, and the overseer responsible. This section summarises the allocations recorded during 2025. The full register, comprising every parcel allocated during the year, is reproduced at Annex A.

8.2 Allocations in 2025

During the year the Council recorded 391 land allocations (identifiers DILMA1438 to DILMA1837) to 294 distinct allottees, across 28 communities, administered through 32 overseers. The allocations were overwhelmingly residential and were concentrated in the Atwima Kwanwoma district, in which the greater part of the Division's land lies. The distribution of the allocations by community, purpose, tenure, allottee, and month is set out below.

ALLOCATIONS BY PURPOSE

INTENDED USE	PARCELS	SHARE
Residential	378	96.7%
Commercial	12	3.1%
Not specified	1	0.3%

ALLOCATIONS BY TENURE OF HOLDING

TENURE	PARCELS	SHARE
Single	322	82.4%
Couple	46	11.8%
Family	16	4.1%
Organisation	7	1.8%

Holdings recorded as "Single" are those registered to an individual allottee; "Couple" and "Family" denote joint holdings, and "Organisation" denotes institutional allottees.

ALLOCATIONS BY ALLOTTEE

Where the allottee was a single named individual, 203 allocations were made to men and 115 to women, women accordingly representing 36 per cent of allocations to individuals. A further 53 allocations were made jointly to couples, and the remainder to families and institutions. The participation of women as allottees in their own right is a notable feature of the year's record.

ALLOCATIONS BY COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY	PARCELS	SHARE
Apemanim Kokobeng	88	22.5%
Ampabame No.2	60	15.3%
Gyekye	32	8.2%
Darko Akyeremade	26	6.6%
Nkoransa	20	5.1%

COMMUNITY	PARCELS	SHARE
Apampatia	20	5.1%
Darko Panpante	15	3.8%
Darko Mpantuase	14	3.6%
Darko Nwomaho	13	3.3%
Adumasa	12	3.1%
Dumakwaee	12	3.1%
Darko Akrofrom	11	2.8%
Other communities (16)	68	17.4%
Total	391	100%

ALLOCATIONS BY MONTH

Allocations were recorded in the register from March to December. The monthly pattern reflects the periods of greatest demand and the schedule of the overseers.

MONTH	PARCELS	SHARE
March	42	10.7%
April	65	16.6%
May	20	5.1%
June	55	14.1%
July	21	5.4%
August	52	13.3%
September	14	3.6%
October	27	6.9%
November	53	13.6%
December	42	10.7%

ALLOCATIONS BY OVERSEER

The Division's land was administered through 32 overseers during the year. The parcels were unevenly distributed among them, reflecting the differing extent of land under each overseer's charge. The overseers who administered the largest number of allocations were as follows.

OVERSEER	PARCELS	SHARE
Opanin Akwasi Frimpong	88	22.5%
Opanin Kwabena Nyamekye	60	15.3%
Opanin Kwaku Opoku	32	8.2%
Nana Kwabena Boateng	26	6.6%
Nana Kwame Amoh II	25	6.4%
Nana Kofi Adu Kwagyan II	20	5.1%
Nana Oduro Agyemang	15	3.8%
Nana Kwame Oduro	15	3.8%

The complete allocation register, showing every parcel with its allottee, community, plot, intended use, and responsible overseer, is reproduced at Annex A.

9. Outlook for 2026

The Council enters 2026 with a settled rhythm of adjudication, observance, and land administration, and with an enlarged platform for institutional and national engagement. Several priorities will guide the year ahead.

- Timely adjudication. The Council will maintain its regular sittings and its practice of carrying contested matters forward to a proper conclusion, while seeking to reduce the time taken to resolve long-running disputes, including those referred to committees of enquiry.
- Orderly land administration. The Council will continue to strengthen the land information register, to keep the work of the overseers under review, and to uphold transparency and fairness in the allocation of stool land.
- Custom and continuity. The calendar of Awukudae and other observances will be maintained, and vacant stools filled in accordance with custom, so that the leadership of the Division remains renewed and secure.
- Partnership for development. The Division will build on its engagement with universities, churches, industry, and government, in support of education, environmental stewardship, and the welfare of its communities.

Prepared and issued by the Office of the Asafohene / Asanteman Akwamuhene, on behalf of the Akwamu Divisional Council, Kumasi.

Annex A. Stool Lands Allocation Register, 2025

The register below records every parcel of stool land allocated within the Akwamu Division during 2025, as maintained in the Division's land information system. It comprises 391 allocations (identifiers DILMA1438 to DILMA1837). The register was generated from the land information system on 7 January 2026 for the period 10 January to 24 December 2025.
